For Student Development (SD) click here; For Academics this involves, according to policy, placing a WF grade for all courses on the student’s transcript in the semester of the RTD, tuition refunds may be awarded according to policy (Briercrest College Withdrawal and Fee Adjustments Policy), and the student will not able to take modular courses or Distance Education courses for one year following the dismissal.
3. The Vice President Academic or Student Development designate will inform the other department in writing.
4. The Registrar’s Office will:
 - a. Place a withdraw fail on the student’s courses for the semester in which the dismissal occurs.
 - b. Place a withdraw date on the student’s BEAM file in accordance with the date of the decision to RTD the student.
 - c. Place comments of the dismissal in BEAM comments.
 - d. Contact Faculty members to inform them of the student’s RTD and the WF that has been awarded as the grade for this course.
